

Sports Coach with Rugby Specialism

Job Description
Title:	Sports Coach with Rugby specialism
Summary of the Role:	The successful applicant will join the games staff and assist in running the sessions and teams in both the Senior and Junior Schools during the Michaelmas and Lent terms. The person will also assist with either Football in the Lent term, Athletics, Cricket or Tennis in the Trinity term.
Line Manager:	The Director of Rugby and heads of Football, Athletics, Cricket or Tennis (as appropriate)
Main Duties and Responsibilities:	The primary role and responsibility is to coach Rugby in the Senior and Junior Schools. The Sports Coach will attend afternoon games sessions throughout the week and Saturday morning matches with some after school coaching sessions.

Person Specification
	Essential	Desirable	Method of
	These are qualities without which the applicant could not be appointed.	These are extra qualities which can be used to choose between applicants who meet all of the essential criteria.	Assessment
Qualifications	Minimum RFU Level 2 Rugby Ready RFU Rugby Scrum Factory RFU	Mini Bus license First aid trained RFU Refereeing Level 1	Production of the applicant's certificates
Experience:	Previous experience working with students of a variety of ages working with a sports club/ school/ team would be essential.	Have coached to a representative level or higher – county level etc.	Contents of the Application Form. Interview
			Professional references
Skills	Sound understanding of basic principles of training exercise prescription, training and coaching methods.		Contents of the Application Form
			Professional references
	Knowledge and understanding of RFU Rugby latest techniques, rules and good coaching	Have coached to a representative level or higher.	Contents of the Application Form
Knowledge	practice.	A good working knowledge of learning styles and coaching techniques.	Interview Professional references
		Ability to coach either Football in the Lent term, Athletics, Cricket or Tennis in the Trinity term.

	Have good communication skills with both students and teachers. Excellent	Good team member, reliable and flexible. Must be prepared to go that	Contents of the Application Form
Personal competencies and qualities	interpersonal skills and to be able to work well within a team	extra mile!	Interview
	environment.		Professional references

Other Information

Current hours of work during term time:

10-14 hours per week (Including Saturday each week).

The contract will be for two to three terms as appropriate.